Product information

Product description

The VASES collection consists of flower pots, furniture and lighting designed by Valencian designer JM Ferrero. His shapes were inspired by diamond cutting and result in pieces with clean shapes and great style that create a great visual impact. These are pieces that can be used in large spaces and become a differentiator for creating different environments. The footrest and base of the VASES bar stool are made of stainless steel. The seat, made of injected plastic, features the original shapes of the collection, inspired by the shape of diamonds. The bar table has a round steel base and a central support made of polyethylene. The table top is made of HPL and is available in a wide range of colors for indoor and outdoor use.
