Design: Eugen Quitllet

Product description

Product information

Eugeni Quitllet metaphorically captures the flowering phase in nature. The beauty of BLOOM LAMP-PLANTER is designed for public spaces and, thanks to its LED function, establishes a relationship between sculptural form and technology. Inspiration transforms into poetry: BLOOM lights at night.... BLOOM buds by day... BLOOM a mirage from the depths of the sea like a night flower before the sunset... that opens and awakens a new being...

about Vondom
