style of the 50s and 60s, the table has a clear, sculptural aesthetic that enhances any room - whether a luxurious living room, modern hotel lobby or exclusive event space.

Materials of the highest quality

The transparent glass top looks elegant and light, but is extremely durable and ensures a particularly fluid, professional feel. The American walnut construction not only gives the table stability, but also reflects the dynamics of the game with its curved lines. The net system is also well thought out: two versions made of Alcantara - in light and dark versions - are included in the scope of delivery, as well as rackets and balls. The net can be easily removed, allowing the table to be seamlessly transformed into an elegant living room table.

Table tennis meets exclusive furniture design

Effetto 71 combines modern furniture design with sporting precision. The combination of an innovative glass surface and fine natural materials makes this table the perfect choice for design-conscious people who are looking for unusual pieces with character. Whether as a table tennis element or a stylish focal point in the room - the Teckell Effetto 71 table impresses in every respect. The Effetto 71 perfectly reflects the Teckell philosophy: Italian craftsmanship, timeless aesthetics and exclusive luxury in a unique design object.
