Product description

---

The space contains the form, the function of which can only be experienced by the viewer through the rotating movement. The apparently strict geometric regularity of Giralot is suddenly broken up by the asymmetrical play of the movable containers. Giralot Zwischenböden is a movable, variable piece of container furniture with a column on the left or right, which is placed on the floor and attached to the wall at two points and serves as an axis for the containers, which can be swiveled through 180°. The depth is 30 cm. The container is available in V veneer (wood) or T Touch (color lacquered). The shelf can support a weight of up to 15 kg and is supplied fully assembled. The maximum height of the baseboard in the standard version is 7.5 cm. A visible extension piece of 10 cm is available for a maximum height of 17.5 cm, resulting in a new total height for Giralot of 206 cm; the heights of the swivel containers remain unchanged.
