Product description

The Highland Garden planter embodies an elegant blend of modern design and luxurious materials. Inspired by the aesthetics of sailing yachts and high-end furniture, it offers a stylish and timeless look. The fine, vertical ribs provide a striking contrast to the broader troughs, creating a harmonious balance. Available with a luxurious Aluma-TEAK wood finish or a powder-coated finish for the troughs, combined with a polished titanium finish or a powder-coated finish for the ribs, this planter integrates perfectly into any garden landscape. It is an exclusive choice for discerning garden and outdoor area designs that impress both in form and functionality.
