Product description

THE ARCHITECTURE OF AIR.

Form in its purest essence. Construction, reduced to movement.

The Teckell® Nivola Aero Edition goes beyond the idea of a simulator - conceived as a sculptural presence for spaces where design and performance are inseparable.

A seamless shell of 4 mm thick anodized aluminium unfolds in flowing lines - an interplay of light, precision and aerodynamic clarity. Technology becomes form.

At the center: a monocoque seat made of carbon, seemingly weightless, uncompromisingly precise - fully adjustable and designed for maximum ergonomics.

Inside, a professional system translates every movement into an immediate reaction. Direct force feedback. Extensive visual immersion. Pure mechanical feedback.

Configured at the highest level of performance, the Nivola Aero Edition embodies the most radical and advanced expression of the entire collection.
