Product description

The Sculptures Jeux Lookin cabinet by Stefano Bettio is a versatile, designer wall unit for stylish storage in modern living spaces. The system consists of individual swiveling containers that can be rotated independently of one another around a column mounted on the wall. The result is a functional yet decorative storage solution that is ideal as a wall cabinet, wall shelf, or small storage unit for hallways, living rooms, bedrooms, home offices, or commercial spaces.

Behind the color-lacquered or mirrored fronts lies practical storage space for small everyday items, books, keys, accessories, or personal belongings. The combination of high-quality wood finishes in oak or American walnut and customizable front colors allows for numerous color and material combinations.

With its clean lines, practical swivel function, and customizable finishes, Lookin combines functional storage with Italian design. The Lookin cabinet by Sculptures Jeux is an elegant, space-saving, and extraordinary wall unit for anyone who wants to harmoniously combine design and functionality.
